Urban children and adolescents living outside of family care or in urban poverty are extremely vulnerable to (i) poor health and wellbeing, (ii) abuse and exploitation, and (iii) low learning and employability due to the environmental and social situations in which they exist, exacerbated by a lack of reliable information and appropriate health, education & protection services.